R. I. Weaver At Jehovah's Witnesses

Russell I. Weaver, a traveling representative of the Watchtower Bible & Tract Society, is visiting with the Framingham Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses Tuesday through Sunday. Every day and evening is scheduled for Mr. Weaver to work with local ministers at meetings with the congregation.

His first meeting with the congregation is on Tuesday evening at 7:30 when the regular ministry school will be conducted by local ministers to be followed by a meeting of instruction including a talk by Mr. Weaver.

From Wednesday through Sunday he will work each day with many of Jehovah's Witnesses in the house-to-house ministry as his main interest is the preaching of the "Good News of God's Kingdom."

COUNTY DONEGAL Association of Greater Boston presented a check to the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library Fund together with a copy of the program of its 56th annual reception and ball containing a tribute to the late President J. F. Kennedy. At the presentation in Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's Boston office
