Boston ~~Mass~~ 8-12-1968

Terance Mac Swiney
This day 48 years ago you
were imprisoned by Imperial Tyrannical power.
Your heroic defend of human freedom
Your glorious support of the lawful and the
rightful government
of Ireland,
The Republic of all Ireland
has fortified and
inspired all ~~men~~ ^{men} of good will.

The Statesmen could not read the signs
Too numb to understand,
The sincere adoration of
a universal man.
Daniel Doherty.

IN MEMORIAM

1965—James F. Wallace—1968

Those whom we love go out of sight.

But never out of mind;

They are cherished in the hearts of those they leave behind.

Florence and family.

1965—Florence M. Murphy—1968

Like falling leaves, the years drift by.

But the memory of you will never die.

In our hearts you will always stay.

Loved and remembered more each day.

Third Anniversary Mass at St. Monica's Church, Saturday, October 26, at 9 o'clock.

1962—Danny Hutchinson—1968
ON YOUR BIRTHDAY

Memories are treasures no one can steal.

Death is a heartache no one can heal.

Some may forget you, now that you've gone

But we shall remember no matter how long.

Lovingly remembered by Mother, Dad, sisters and brothers.

1920—Terance MacSweeney—1968

May we learn to understand and appreciate your wonderful endurance for such a noble purpose.

May all mankind be worthy of the sacrifice you have made in defense of human freedom.

Daniel Doherty.

1961—Grazia Mangano—1968

Mother, deep in our hearts you'll always stay. Loved and remembered every day.

1953—Minnie Getz Schmidt—1968

Lovingly Remembered
Lottie, Minnie, grandchildren.

Chairman, Rev Father, Ladies & Gentlemen
This is indeed an occasion which I shall ever
remember & cherish,

Not just the words spoken but
the sincere manner of the speaker
is substance, and the beauty
which makes life worth living.

many organizations have been lost come into being since this Club was formed
more than 50 years ago, many of them are gone, and forgotten.

The men who forged our Club
have gone but by no means forgotten, the ideal and principles which motivated
them, still serve to guide
and inspire our officers and members today.

The reason our Club is functioning
so well is because we are fortunate in having dedicated men
and women who have labored
sincerely and constructively
for the common good
and because the right
of every individual member
is recognized and respected.

Brother Michael O'Donnolan
is typical, what he has accomplished is most remarkable
and you can be sure his efforts are appreciated. His cooperation which he has received
is of proof conclusive.

The manner in which our Club cooperated with the A.A.F.M.
is a case in point.

The loyal manner that the Club stood by and supported the rightful Government of Ireland, when it not so popular to speak of the Irish Republic
is well known.

It has been a great privilege to belong to an organization whose worthy members are so
well known for their support of worthy causes

They are times now when some people say "can't do it and be your self."

But this people had rather little experience with the true
reality of life.

For instance a man who was considered an outlaw some 40
years ago is now the President of Ireland, and a man with a guilt on his head, is now representing Ireland at the U.N.

POBLACHT NA H EIREANN.

THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT
OF THE
IRISH REPUBLIC
TO THE PEOPLE OF IRELAND.

IRISHMEN AND IRISHWOMEN: In the name of God and of the dead generations from which she receives her old tradition of nationhood, Ireland, through us, summons her children to her flag and strikes for her freedom.

Having organised and trained her manhood through her secret revolutionary organisation, the Irish Republican Brotherhood, and through her open military organisations, the Irish Volunteers and the Irish Citizen Army, having patiently perfected her discipline, having resolutely waited for the right moment to reveal itself, she now seizes that moment, and, supported by her exiled children in America and by gallant allies in Europe, but relying in the first on her own strength, she strikes in full confidence of victory.

We declare the right of the people of Ireland to the ownership of Ireland, and to the unfettered control of Irish destinies, to be sovereign and indefeasible. The long usurpation of that right by a foreign people and government has not extinguished the right, nor can it ever be extinguished except by the destruction of the Irish people. In every generation the Irish people have asserted their right to national freedom and sovereignty; six times during the past three hundred years they have asserted it in arms. Standing on that fundamental right and again asserting it in arms in the face of the world, we hereby proclaim the Irish Republic as a Sovereign Independent State, and we pledge our lives and the lives of our comrades-in-arms to the cause of its freedom, of its welfare, and of its exaltation among the nations.

The Irish Republic is entitled to, and hereby claims, the allegiance of every Irishman and Irishwoman. The Republic guarantees religious and civil liberty, equal rights and equal opportunities to all its citizens, and declares its resolve to pursue the happiness and prosperity of the whole nation and of all its parts, cherishing all the children of the nation equally, and oblivious of the differences carefully fostered by an alien government, which have divided a minority from the majority in the past.

Until our arms have brought the opportune moment for the establishment of a permanent National Government, representative of the whole people of Ireland and elected by the suffrages of all her men and women, the Provisional Government, hereby constituted, will administer the civil and military affairs of the Republic in trust for the people.

We place the cause of the Irish Republic under the protection of the Most High God, Whose blessing we invoke upon our arms, and we pray that no one who serves that cause will dishonour it by cowardice, inhumanity, or rapine. In this supreme hour the Irish nation must, by its valour and discipline and by the readiness of its children to sacrifice themselves for the common good, prove itself worthy of the august destiny to which it is called.

Signed on Behalf of the Provisional Government,

THOMAS J. CLARKE,
SEAN Mac DIARMADA, THOMAS MacDONAGH,
P. H. PEARSE, EAMONN CEANNT,
JAMES CONNOLLY. JOSEPH PLUNKETT.
