The story of Ireland
as told by Mr. ~~Conor~~

Conor Cruise O'Brien
Irish unrecorded

Some very important
chapters Mr O'Brien

Ranges from the time of
The French Revolution

Wolf Tone to the present day. ~~But~~ Yet he does not mention the Election of Dec 14-1908 when all of the Irish People over 21 years voted.

Yes the women in Ireland
voted in that election

two years before the ~~the~~ women had the vote in and ^{it} required an ^{the United States} amendment to US Cons. to avoid them that night.

83 percent of all the People in voted for the Irish Republic
The voted for the
ideals and principles
set forth in the 1916 Proclamation.

There were 2 million Americans still on French soil
when the election was held in Ireland.

I was one of those American soldiers.

Mr Wilson said we were fighting for world Democracy and the Freedom of small Nations

3 Well Ireland is small and large or small
The Republic of Ireland ~~was~~ for the first time in history of the human Race. Established the Republic of the Counties
by truly Democratic Procedures. Also
~~and~~ peacefully and
orderly also

"Surely it was
reasonable to expect
that America would recognize the government which the
the people of Ireland
and Democrats established

England and the U.S. were united for world freedom so we were told

England and
United States were united ~~for~~ ^{we} were told ~~to fight~~
for world freedom

Shortly after ~~the~~
world war one
England sent the Black and Tans
to Ireland to burn ~~the~~ ^{the} homes and murder the
Irish People
The Burned half
of Cork City to the ground
and ~~blow it on~~ ~~not~~ more than 10,000 ~~Irish~~ ~~Irishmen~~

⑤ ~~men from the city~~ ~~of Cork had~~ ~~sworn in England~~
~~armed forces during~~
~~the war. And mean~~
~~just the city, not~~
~~the whole Co. of Cork~~ ~~got England~~
~~10 thousand of the~~
~~you men~~

Ireland was divided by the British House of Commons, but it
must be remembered
not one Irish man or woman voted for the division of this country.
Ireland was united
against Partition.

If the United States and England had recognized the
lawfully established
Government of Ireland
the Republic as they were morally obliged to do. There would peace and prosperity in Ireland today?
