Réamhrá Introduction

Seamus Neely
Chief Executive

Donegal situated in the North West of Ireland is a great place in which to live, to work and to do business. Our new Local Economic and Community Plan has set out a range of goals which will consolidate and further develop Donegal in this regard. As can be seen from this prospectus, Donegal is a place of spectacular beauty with world class businesses, a skilled workforce and a positive and supportive attitude to enterprise and innovation.

We have excellent connectivity and access in this region. Donegal has educational facilities from pre-school to third level which are of the highest standard and a range of social and cultural amenities which along with the great Donegal outdoors provide for a quality of life which is unmatched anywhere.

Donegal in the Republic of Ireland along with our neighbours in the Derry City & Strabane District Council area in Northern Ireland form the North West Gateway region. Our two Council's adopt a partnership and collaborative approach to development giving us a critical mass and facilitating best use of resources for the benefit of the region as a whole.

We hope that you will consider Donegal as a place in which to invest, to work and to visit and look forward to welcoming you here and to providing you with any further information and assistance that you might require at any stage.

Tá súil againn fáilte a chur romhaibh go Dún na nGall, áit ar léith chun cónaí ann, oibriú ann agus chun gnó a dheánamh ann.

Cead Míle Fáilte go Dhún na nGall Welcome to Donegal

Cllr. Ciaran Brogan
Mayor of Donegal

Welcome to our Donegal Prospectus which will introduce you to our county Donegal as a great place to live, to work and to do business. Donegal, situated in the North West of Ireland is one of the most scenic and culturally vibrant places in Ireland with stunning land and seascapes, excellent recreational amenities, world class employment and investment opportunities and the full range of services required for an excellent quality of life. We are a county which promotes enterprise and learning and which values our unique culture and heritage while seeking at all times to be innovative and forward thinking.

You will see profiles in this prospectus of some of the firms that are located in Donegal and operating successfully on a global stage from this region. The testimonials of these companies with regard to the advantages of living and working in this county are a source of satisfaction and pride to me as Mayor of Donegal.

We hope that you will consider Donegal as a place in which to invest, to come to work in or indeed to visit.

Beidh Céad Míle Fáilte romhaibh go Dún na nGall.

Education

LYIT Campus, Letterkenny

North West Regional Science Park, Letterkenny

Education in Donegal is based on an ethos of quality, inclusiveness and life long learning for all from early year's education to primary and post-primary education as well as third-level and outreach education.

The Department of Education and Skills is a department of the Irish state with responsibility for education and training. This department oversees the delivery of educational programmes for primary, post-primary, further education and training and higher education.

The Department of Education and Skills fund a number of pre-primary services for designated areas of urban disadvantage targeting children most at risk of not succeeding in education. The majority of early childhood education and care services in Donegal are delivered outside the formal education system by a diverse range of private, community and voluntary interests and are described variously as crèches, nurseries, pre-schools, naíonraí (Irish language pre-schools), playgroups and day-care services.

The Donegal Childcare Committee is an agency based in Ballybofey with a county-wide remit to provide a coordinated and strategic approach to the development of high quality childcare in County Donegal and aims to bring about positive outcomes for children and families.

The National Strategy for Higher Education to 2030 cites 'In the decades ahead, higher education will play a central role in making

Ireland a country recognised for innovation, competitive enterprise and continuing academic excellence, and an attractive place to live and work with a high quality of life, cultural vibrancy and inclusive social structures'.

Children attend primary school between the ages of 4 and 12. Primary education is also referred to as first level education. Primary school covers eight years - a two-year infant cycle followed by six years from first to sixth class.

Students usually begin secondary schools at the age of 12. Post-primary education consists of a three-year Junior Cycle, followed by a two or three year Senior Cycle with the option of doing an additional Transition Year which provides an opportunity for students to experience a wide range of educational inputs, including work experience, over the course of a year that is free from formal examinations.

Upon completion of post-primary education, students have the option of entering higher education which in Ireland is provided mainly by 7 Universities, 14 Institutes of Technology and 7 Colleges of Education. There is also the option of availing of further training and education outside of the third level system.

Killybegs

Killybegs is Ireland's premier sea-port and Ireland's Gateway to Our Ocean Wealth.

A Strategic Port

Killybegs is a modern, vibrant and forward looking harbour operation located in South County Donegal. Killybegs is Ireland's premier fishing port and is also ideally placed for servicing offshore energy exploration and the development of renewable energies along Ireland's West Coast and indeed Europe's Western approaches. Killybegs has deep water all-weather harbour infrastructure along with world-class hydraulic, mechanical and other key services which play a pivotal role in the development of offshore energy. Killybegs is home to a range of innovative and cutting-edge firms involved in a range of sectors.

The town of Killybegs has a proud maritime heritage. Developed initially as a fishing port, it has since 1999, played an important role in facilitating offshore exploration and in particular the development of the Corrib

Field. It has also been the harbour of choice for wind farm developers, with turbines being delivered for wind farms throughout the north and west of Ireland.

Killybegs is now being developed as a strategic, innovative hub for marine resources including offshore renewable energies, added value seafood and marine tourism.

www.lyit.ie

In a further development, Killybegs has become the port of call of many cruise ships who benefit from modern berthing and quayside facilities along with direct access to the Highlands of Donegal.

www.killybegs.ie

Killybegs in essence has evolved into a multifunctional port serving the fishing, energy and cruise sectors. Therefore the presence of this expertise, adaptability and flexibility ensures that Killybegs can meet any challenge.

Letterkenny / Derry Gateway

Peace Bridge, Derry

Polestar, Letterkenny

This unique gateway links Derry City to Letterkenny in Co. Donegal and is the focal point for the North West Gateway Initiative which is being promoted by the Governments of the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland with an emphasis on the development of the North West Region of Ireland.

The Letterkenny / Derry Gateway is one of the designated Gateway / Development Centres in the Republic of Ireland's National Spatial Strategy and Northern Ireland's Rural Development Programme. This departure was made with the aim of achieving a better balance of social, economic and physical development across Ireland, supported by more effective and integrated planning. The Letterkenny / Derry Gateway is of key strategic importance to the North West region and is unique in that it is the only cross-border gateway identified in the National Spatial Strategy. The North West Gateway Initiative is being promoted by the Governments of both the Republic of Ireland and the Northern Ireland Executive making it one of the key centres recognised at national level for Inward Investment.

A range of priority working areas has been identified including key projects in both jurisdictions and also collaboratively on a cross-border basis. Donegal County Council and Derry City & Strabane District Council are working in close partnership to advance common goals in the North West Gateway region. A coordinated approach is adopted with regard to the economic, social and cultural development of the North West of Ireland on a cross-border basis. A wide range of collaborative projects have been completed and continue to be progressed in areas of common, strategic interest in sectors such as access, connectivity, health, economic development, enterprise, tourism, education and culture.

Connectivity

Building on Donegal’s reputation as an excellent base for business, whether a small local company or a large multi-national, the County has proactively made the investment necessary to ensure that your data and broadband-dependent business is connected to the global marketplace.

This provides investors with the confidence to choose Donegal as an dependable location for doing business.

- Secure Metropolitan Area Networks (MANs) in our main towns for secure homeworking and offices.
- A substantial rural broadband network soon to be upgraded to high speed and expanded to all homes.

This targeted investment in the next generation of High Speed Broadband has resulted in:

- A resilient and competitive fibre-optic network, offering a range of global suppliers and dependable international routes for your data.
- A dedicated trans-Atlantic fibre-optic cable that connects Donegal directly into global centres of commerce and innovation in North America, South East England and Northern Europe.
- High Speed Fibre of up-to 100Mbps connecting your homeworkers and suppliers in our main population centres.

All of this is backed up by the proactive Donegal Digital Action Plan, ensuring access to the latest digital innovations and expertise in Europe and North America for e-enabled business models and processes.

ERNACT is a joint venture between Donegal County Council and Derry City and Strabane District Council and provides ICT supports throughout the region operating from its base at the CoLab, Letterkenny.

Health Services

Ireland's health care system is modern and efficient. Donegal has many accessible medical services right throughout the county.

The Health Service Executive (HSE) provides all of Ireland's public health services, in hospitals and communities across the country. A wide range of emergency, diagnosis, treatment and rehabilitation services are provided in Ireland's public hospitals. Letterkenny General Hospital is an acute general and maternity hospital and delivers patient-centred, quality-driven focused service and provides a wide range of diagnostic and support services. Letterkenny General Hospital is a teaching hospital with links to the National University of Ireland Galway, the Royal College of Surgeons and the Letterkenny Institute of Technology.

Health care in Donegal is provided via a network of Primary Care Teams which are responsible for organising and delivering primary healthcare services for the local population which are accessible, integrated, of a high quality and which meet the needs of the local population.

Services provided at the Primary Care Centres in the county include:

- GPs
- Nurses
- Physiotherapist
- Speech and Language Therapy
- Occupational Therapy
- Mental Health Services
- Psychology / Counselling Services
- Audiology Services
- Podiatry
- Social Work Services
- Dental Services
- Dietetic Services
- Ophthalmology Services
- Environmental Health Services
- Civil Registration
- Carers Services
- Home Care Services

An out of hours service called NowDoc also operates in Donegal. This service provides access to urgent family doctor services outside of normal surgery hours. There are five NowDoc services operating in Donegal in Letterkenny, Carndonagh, Derrybeg, Ballyshannon & Mountcharles.

Donegal also has a vast array of private health services available throughout the county such as nursing homes for the elderly, dentists, podiatry, physiotherapy, opticians, alternative medicines and therapies and many more.

Donegal Hospice is a modern purpose-built building situated in Letterkenny. Here, a multi-disciplinary team of professionals support the medical and nursing staff in providing palliative care to the residents of its six bedrooms and two apartments. The needs of residents' families are also catered for at this local hospice. The Hospice also provides a palliative home care service.

Given the location of county Donegal, it makes sense that cross-border cooperation in key, strategic areas takes place and this is particularly true in relation to health. There are strong links between Altnagelvin Hospital in Co. Derry and Letterkenny General Hospital. A new state of the art radiotherapy centre, one-third funded by the Irish Government, will be opened at Altnagelvin Hospital in Derry in 2016 to serve a catchment area of 500,000 people in the Northwest region. Further advances in crossborder healthcare are being made on a continued basis.

An Ghaeltacht

Altan

Donegal's Gaeltacht is the largest geographical Gaeltacht in Ireland. Come and experience the culture, language and traditions that we are so proud of.

An Ghaeltacht - Language Community

Donegal's Gaeltacht is located mainly in the west of the county along the coast and is Ireland's second largest Gaeltacht with a population of 24,744 which represents almost one quarter of the country's total Gaeltacht population. The Donegal Gaeltacht encompasses a geographical area of 1,502km². The three parishes of Na Rosa, Gaoth Dobhair and Cloich Cheann Fhaola constitute the main centre of population with just over 16,000 and is considered the most rurally populated area in Europe. Dún na nGall, the Irish for Donegal, means 'fort of the foreigner', so called for having repealed the numerous viking raids on the county in the 8th and 9th centuries.

ar nós Clannad, Enya agus Altan. Bíonn an Ghaeilge lárnach i gcuid mhór féilte pobail chomh maith.

The Donegal Gaeltacht has produced some of Ireland's greatest writers and poets in the Irish language, as well as some internationally-acclaimed musical performers such as Clannad, Enya, and Altan. The Irish language is also celebrated as part of many community festivals.

Tá béim mhór ar chaomhnú na Gaeilge i nDún na nGall agus tá an turasóireacht oideachasúil fíorthábhachtach leis an gheilleagar áitiúil a chothú. Achan bhliain, tagann na mílte dalta scoile ó achan chearn den tír le freastal ar Choláistí Gaeltachta le linn an tsamhraidh, áit ndéanann siad cúrsaí Gaeilge le linn an lae, agus cultúr agus oidhreacht an cheantair a bhlaiseadh, sult a bhaint as imeachtaí spóirt, agus freastal ar imeachtaí sóisialta san oíche. Bíonn neart cúrsaí Gaeilge agus cultúrtha ar siúl chomh maith do dhaoine fásta sa Ghaeltacht, agus meallann cúrsaí de chuid Oideas Gael agus Ghael Linn foghlaimoirí fásta ó achan chearn den tír agus ó thar lear, mar shampla.

Irish Language - An Ghaeilge

Cúis mhór bhróid dúinn iad na ceantracha láidre briomhara Gaeltachta atá le fáil i gContae Dhún na nGall, agus is iomaí duine a chaitheann seal a chuarta anseo le saibhreas teanga agus cultúrtha na Gaeltachta a bhlaiseadh. Tá breis agus trian de thalamh iomlán an chontae suite sa Ghaeltacht, agus tá radharcanna galánta le fáil ar feadh Shlí an Atlantaigh Fhiáin a bhfuil cuid mhór di ag dul fríd an Ghaeltacht.

There is a strong emphasis on preserving the Irish language in Donegal and educational tourism is key to sustaining the local economy. Each year, thousands of school pupils from all across the entire country come to attend Gaeltacht Colleges during the summer where they attend Irish-language courses during the day, experience the culture and heritage of the area and enjoy sport and social activities in the evenings. There are also many enjoyable Irish language and cultural courses available for adults in the Gaeltacht, for example Oideas Gael & Gael Linn attract adult learners from all over the world.

The Donegal Gaeltacht is home to proud and vibrant Irish-speaking areas and the rich linguistic and cultural heritage of the Gaeltacht is a key reason why so many people come to visit the area. The Donegal Gaeltacht encompasses over one-third of the entire land mass of County Donegal and much of it is located along the breath-taking scenery of the Wild Atlantic Way.

Is as Dún na nGall iad cuid de mhórscribhneoirí agus de mhórfhilí na Gaeilge, chomh maith le roinnt ceoltóirí a bhfuil clú agus cáil orthu ar fud an domhain,

Recreational & Sporting Activities

There is a wonderful quality of life to be enjoyed in Donegal and there is always something to do whether it is surfing, horse-riding, golfing, shopping or just taking a relaxing walk along one of our many blue-flag beaches.

The landscape of Donegal naturally induces and encourages a recreational and sporting lifestyle. Many of our recreational and sporting facilities are set in and along breathtaking scenery promoting an enormous sense of well being.

Walking is a favourite pastime in Donegal owing to the magnificent array of trails and routes available right throughout the county. The natural resources in Co. Donegal provide many different landscapes and terrains for walking, hiking and mountain climbing for all capabilities. Walking trails have been developed along our lakes, hills and mountains, beaches and our towns and villages provide excellent looped walkways. The popularity of this pastime necessitates the continued development and enhancement of facilities in Co. Donegal and a collaborative approach to this continued development is taken.

Sport has a vibrant presence in County Donegal, both competitively and recreationally and we have many sport-stars to be proud of and to look up to. Sport can be pursued individually or socially amongst the huge array of sporting clubs and associations in Donegal including, GAA, Soccer, Golf, Tennis, Rugby, Badminton, Athletics, Martial Arts, Cycling, Basketball, Swimming, Surfing, Gymnastics, Water Sports and many, many more.

Golf is a very popular pastime in Donegal and we have 17 golf courses located around the county, 13 of which are links courses. The quality of these links golf courses is widely acclaimed in the golfing world with Ballyliffin and Rosapenna in particular being regarded amongst the best in the world. Ballyliffin Golf Club was recently voted the best 36 Hole links complex in the world by the influential US Golf Magazine - Golf Odyssey.

Good Food In Great Places

Solis Lough Eske Castle

Donegal is steeped in talent when it comes to food and we have the added benefit of having some of the best, authentic, local produce and ingredients to be found anywhere.

Donegal is famous for its exceptionally high standard of natural ingredients and foods due to its unspoilt environment, climate, and richly diverse landscape that produce a wide variety of food and farming methods. Boasting the longest coastline in Ireland, the county is also the producer of an abundance of fish and other seafood.

The annual Taste of Donegal Festival takes place in Donegal Town in August each year and has established itself as a must attend event. The Festival gathers together top restaurants, hotels, food, drink and life-style product providers to the specially erected tented village at the foot of Bluestack Mountains and Donegal Bay.

We have many fine, gourmet restaurants right throughout Donegal showcasing not only excellence in seafood but also local beef, lamb, game, dairy produce, fruit and vegetables that are among the best in the world.

The Food Coast

Donegal has direct access to some of the best quality produce available anywhere in Ireland as well as having some of the best chefs in the country and it was recognised that this talented sector should be recognised on a national and international stage.

Donegal's Good Food Initiative was developed by the Local Enterprise Office in Donegal as a programme to support development, growth and quality in Donegal's food sector. The initiative aims to promote Donegal as a "Food County" – a place with a vibrant food culture and food economy and also to create the opportunity for companies within the food sector to connect with fellow businesses.

Donegal Food Coast works with new and existing businesses to develop and support their capabilities and promotes the use of quality local produce and products to make Donegal a destination for an exceptional food experience.

The community of Donegal is scattered across the globe made up of people who have recently left the county and others whose ancestors may have left many years ago. We are proud of our Donegal Diaspora and their many achievements in their chosen fields.

The Donegal Diaspora Project has been established to reach out to and to connect with the broad Donegal and Irish Diaspora, no matter where in the world they may be living. The community of Donegal is defined as consisting not only of those who actually live in the county, but also to include those with any connection to or interest in the county, no matter where in the world they may be living. This is Donegal's "Pobal Domhanda", its Global Community.

Donegal's Global Community is made up of thousands of people involved in a wide range of activities across the world. The Donegal Diaspora Project is working to reach out to this community to promote activity for mutual benefit in economic, cultural, educational and other areas of common interest.
