

PROGRESS REPORT RE CASUAL TRADING

TOWN	EA MEMBERS AGREED TO PUBLIC MEETING	PUBLIC MEETING HELD	DRAFT BYELAWS PUBLISHED	BYELAWS ADOPTED	CURRENT POSITION AS AND AT 17/06/2005
Carndonagh	01/10/01	26/11/01	14/02/03	26/09/03	The Council have a Casual Trading Area designated at Mart Road, Carndonagh, Operational from 14 th October, 2003
Ballybofey	9/3/00	17/5/00	13/02/03		The proposed designation of a casual trading area in Ballybofey was published on 13 th February, 2003 was the subject of an appeal in the District Court and is now the subject of an appeal in the Circuit Court
Ballyshannon	03/03/03	31/03/03	10/10/03	31/05/2004	The proposed designation of a casual trading area in Ballyshannon was published on 10 th October, 2003. Appeal withdrawn. It is now fully operational from 5 th June, 2005. 77 Plots have been allocated and no plots are currently available
Killybegs			10/10/03	26/01/2004	Area designated and is fully operational from 13 th February, 2004
Moville		5/11/03			Public Meeting held in Moville on 5/11/03 with a view to outlining suitable site and publishing draft bye-laws for designation of a casual trading area in the town. The preferred site is on lands designated as 'Open space' in the Moville Town Plan (Var.) No 2, 1994. This zoning would need to be changed to facilitate the casual trading but the Planning & Development Act 2000 does not now facilitate simple variation. A new local Area Plan for Moville is necessary and members agreed at workshop on Tuesday 10 th Feb,'04 to have options for the Casual Trading designation revisited.
Falcarragh			24/02/2005		Draft bye-laws published on 24 th February, 2005 and is now the subject of an appeal in the District Court, still awaiting date for same
Dungloe			24/02/2005		Draft bye-laws published on 24 th February, 2005 and is now the subject of an appeal in the District Court, still awaiting date for same
Donegal Town					The examination of a suitable site for designation in Donegal Town has been initiated.
Lifford					The examination of a suitable site for designation in Lifford has been initiated

