

Foreword		I
Table of Contents		II
List of Maps		V
List of Tables		VI
List of Figures		VIII
Appendices		IX
Chapter 1	The Donegal Community Audit – Introduction	1
Chapter 2	The Donegal Community Audit - Approach and Methodology	2
2.1	Introduction	2
2.2	Overall project methodology and approach	3
2.2.1	Identifying, validating and mapping community and voluntary Infrastructure	3
	What is community infrastructure?
	Defining the population of community and voluntary groups
	The sample of community and voluntary groups captured
	Defining the population of community facilities
2.2.2	An outline of procedures used in the questionnaire research	4
	Stage 1: Recruiting and training the field researchers
	Stage 2: Pre Administration
	Stage 3: Administration
	Stage 4: Analysis of data
2.2.3	Working towards a true population	6
	The Common Registration Form
2.3	Overall mapping methodology and approach	7
2.3.1	The Mapping Exercise	7
	Location, Location, Location - Why does Geography matter?
	Why use GIS as a tool for analysis?
	The GIS methodology and approach
	Stage 1: Mapping the primary data
	Stage 2:Attaching the secondary data
	Stage 3: Exploring accessibility and relationships
	Stage 4:The new framework
Chapter 3	The Donegal Community Audit - A Spatial Analysis	11
3.1	Introduction	11
3.2	Embarking on the spatial analysis	11
3.3	The Approach	12
3.3.1	Mapping with Accuracy	12
	Protecting anonymity
3.4	The spatial distribution of community and voluntary groups and facilities	12
3.4.1	Counts of community and voluntary groups by Electoral Area	15
3.4.2	Counts of community and voluntary groups by Electoral Division	15
3.4.3	The impact of population centres on the count of community and voluntary

	groups	17
3.4.4	The spatial distribution of community and voluntary groups and facilities to the Population Density	18
3.4.5	Preliminary findings	20
3.5	Proximity of community and voluntary groups to facilities	20
3.6	Summary of Spatial Issues	22
Chapter 4	The Donegal Community Audit – A Sectoral Analysis	24
4.1	Introduction	24
4.2	Distribution of community and voluntary infrastructure sectorally	24
4.2.1	Introduction	24
	Most activity
	Least activity
4.3	Meeting the needs of the population sectorally	26
4.3.1	Target group – the elderly	27
	Indicator of need
	The geographical distribution of the elderly population
	How well are the needs met?
4.3.2	Target group – the youth	30
	Indicator of need
	The geographical distribution of the youth population
	How well are the needs met?
4.3.3	Target group - the male population	32
	Indicator of need
	The geographical distribution of males
	How well are the needs met?
4.3.4	Target group - the female population	34
	Indicator of need
	The geographical distribution of females
	How well are the needs met?
4.3.5	Target group - People with a Disability	36
	Indicator of need
	The geographical distribution of People with a Disability
	How well are the needs met?
4.3.6	Target group - ethnic minorities	38
	Indicator of need
	The geographical distribution of other nationalities
	How well are the needs met?
4.4	Increasing accessibility for target groups under PEACE 11 and the Equality Acts	40
4.3.1	Activities undertaken by target groups	40
	Number of activities
	Range and appropriateness
4.5	Conclusions	47
Chapter 5	The Donegal Community Audit - A Community Perspective	48
5.1	Introduction	48
5.2	Representing the needs of community and voluntary groups	48

5.2.1	The County Community Forum	48
5.2.2	Willingness to join	48
5.2.3	Awareness of the existence of community structures	50
5.2.4	Alignment of community structures	50
5.3	Needs as identified by community and voluntary groups	51
5.3.1	Strategic development needs of community and voluntary groups	51
	Translating aims and objectives and assistance with the development of strategic plan
	Ensuring the implementation of action plans
5.3.2	Human resource needs of community and voluntary groups	53
	Paid community and voluntary workers
	The importance of volunteerism
	Addressing a lack of volunteerism or the 'volunteersim' issue
	Converse to the volunteerism issue
5.3.3	Training and educational needs of community and voluntary groups	56
	Funding training in the County
	The distribution of training grants across the different sectors
	Types of training courses undertaken
	Future training needs
Chapter 6	The Donegal Community Audit – A Funding Perspective	69
6.1	Introduction	69
6.2	Financing projects	69
6.2.1	Funding applications	69
	Funding bodies for the community and voluntary sector
6.2.2	Fundraising	73
	Types of fundraising
	A dependency on fundraising?
6.2.3	Other means of financing projects	75
	Dependency on other methods?
6.3	Meeting future funding needs	75
6.3.1	Plans to meet future funding needs	75
6.4	Conclusions	78
Chapter 7	The Donegal Community Audit - Community Facilities	79
7.1	Introduction	79
7.2	Current distribution of community facilities in County Donegal	79
7.2.1	Definition of a community facility?	79
	Master listing of indoor community centres
	Sample captured
	Other populations
7.2.2	Distribution of community facilities	80
	Augmented list of facilities
	Estimating demand for and supply of facilities
	Assessing the impact of primary schools
7.2.3	Distribution and equitability	86
	An equitable distribution of total community and voluntary infrastructure?
	An equitable distribution of community and voluntary groups?

	An equitable distribution of community and voluntary groups in rural areas?
	Distribution of community and voluntary groups by town
7.3	What is available within the community facilities	88
7.4	Programming of activities and accessibility	91
7.5	Equality and the community facility	92
	7.5.1 Diversity and equality policy(s) of the facilities	93
	7.5.2 Accessibility for People with Disabilities	94
	Existence of facilities for People with Disabilities
	Accessibility for people with different forms of disability
	7.5.3 Accessibility for low income groups	96
	7.5.4 Accessibility for community and voluntary groups	97
7.6	Ownership and management of the facility	98
	7.6.1 Type of insurance	99
	7.6.2 Existence of a facility sub committee	101
7.7	Conclusions	101
Chapter 8	The Donegal Community Audit – The Way Forward	102
8.1	Introduction	102
8.2	Linking, building and bridging	102
	8.2.1 The Scenarios	103
	Existence of the resource
	Lack of resource
8.3	Consolidating existing linkages	103
	8.3.1 From the perspective of the groups who have the resource	103
	Spare capacity
	Scarcity of resources
	8.3.2 From the perspective of the groups who do not have the resource	104
8.4	Building a relationship	105
	8.4.1 From the perspective of the groups who have the resource	105
	8.4.2 From the perspective of the groups who do not have the resource	106
8.5	Bridging a gap	107
8.6	Do linkages have to be based on proximity?	108
	Transcending the proximity rule
	Transcending the border boundary
8.7	Conclusion	109
Chapter 9	The Donegal Community Audit – Conclusion	110

Maps

Map 1	The spatial distribution of community and voluntary groups and community facilities audited
Map 2	The total count of community and voluntary groups audited to the population per Electoral Area
Map 3	The total count of community and voluntary groups audited to the population per Electoral Division
Map 4	The spatial distribution of community and voluntary groups and facilities audited to the population density per Electoral Division
Map 5	Physical accessibility to community facilities audited
Map 6	Community and voluntary groups audited to the percentage of the population over 65 years of age by Electoral Division
Map 7	Community and voluntary groups audited to the percentage of the population under 14 years of age by Electoral Division
Map 8	Community and voluntary groups audited to the percentage of the male population by Electoral Division
Map 9	Community and voluntary groups audited to the percentage of the female population by Electoral Division
Map 10	Community and voluntary groups audited to the percentage of the population with a disability by Electoral Division
Map 11	Community and voluntary groups audited to the percentage of population classified as 'other nationality' by Electoral Division
Map 12	Willingness of community and voluntary groups audited to join the nearest community forum
Map 13	Additional meeting facilities for community and voluntary groups
Map 14	All meeting facilities identified for community and voluntary groups audited
Map 15	Clusters of all community and voluntary infrastructure
Map 16	Clusters of all community and voluntary infrastructure (excluding primary schools)
Map 17	Electoral Areas and Electoral Divisions of County Donegal
Map 18	Principal census towns of County Donegal

Tables

- 3.1 Proximity of Community and Voluntary Groups to Community Facilities
- 4.1 Target group: victims of the conflict (Main activities / programmes and projects)
- 4.2 Target group: People with Disabilities (Main activities / programmes and projects)
- 4.3 Target group: ex prisoners and their family (Main activities / programmes and projects)
- 4.4 Target group: displaced persons (Main activities / programmes and projects)
- 4.5 Target group: all young people (Main activities / programmes and projects)
- 4.6 Target group: women (Main activities / programmes and projects)
- 4.7 Target group: men (Main activities / programmes and projects)
- 4.8 Target group: ethnic minority communities (Main activities / programmes and projects)
- 4.9 Target group: older people (Main activities / programmes and projects)
- 4.10 Target group: lone parents (Main activities / programmes and projects)
- 4.11 Target group: low income families (Main activities / programmes and projects)
- 4.12 Target group: sexual orientation (Main activities / programmes and projects)
- 5.1 Criteria for classification as a community and voluntary group
- 5.2 Sector: women (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.3 Sector: men (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.4 Sector: sports and recreational (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.5 Sector: community development groups (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.6 Sector: ex-prisoners (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.7 Sector: childcare (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.8 Sector: housing / residential (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.9 Sector: refugee / asylum seekers (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.10 Sector: heritage (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.11 Sector: youth (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.12 Sector: development groups (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.13 Sector: Travellers (Types of training courses taken)

- 5.14 Sector: older people (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.15 Sector: tourism (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.16 Sector: festival groups (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.17 Sector: environment (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.18 Sector: Disability (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.19 Sector: culture (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.20 Sector: religious (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.21 Sector: enterprise (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.22 Sector: rural transport (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.23 Sector: parish council (Types of training courses taken)
- 5.24 Sector: other groups (Types of training courses taken)
- 6.1 Top 20 most active funding bodies to which applications were made since 2000
- 6.2 The most common types of fundraising activities
- 7.1 Representation of community groups in each settlement type
- 7.2(a) Aggregated summary of facilities
- 7.2(b) Summary of facilities
- 7.3 Level of usage of facilities in the 'peak' and 'off peak' seasons
- 7.4 Facilities for People with Disabilities
- 7.5 Accessibility to and within facilities for People with Disabilities
- 8.1 Different scenarios when groups have a resource
- 8.2 Different scenarios when groups do not have a resource

Figures

- 2.1 Participants in the Research Methods and Approaches training course
- 2.2 The layering process using GIS
- 3.1 Relationship between the Count of Community and Voluntary Groups and the Population Per Electoral Division
- 3.2 Relationship between the Count of Community and Voluntary Groups and Population Density Per Electoral Division
- 4.1 Community and voluntary groups with a specific sectoral remit
- 5.1 Was Funding provided for Training Courses?
- 5.2 The Distribution of training grants across sectoral specific community and voluntary groups
- 6.1 Did you make a funding application?
- 6.2 Was your application successful?
- 7.1 Does the facility monitor the diversity of the people that use the Centre?
- 7.2 Does the Centre have an Equal Usage Policy displayed in the Centre?
- 7.3 Does the facility have special discounts for low income groups?
- 7.4 Does the Centre have a policy to allocate time a percentage of its time to Community and Voluntary Groups?
- 7.5 Management structure of the facility
- 7.6 Types of insurance cover in community facilities
- 7.7 Existence of a facility sub committee
- 8.1 Existing linkages between community and voluntary groups who have the resource and are sharing it
- 8.2 Community and voluntary groups that do not have the resource but another organisation is sharing it with them
- 8.3 Community and voluntary groups who have the resource and are willing to share
- 8.4 Community and voluntary groups who do not have the resource but would like to share
- 8.5 Community and voluntary groups who have the resource but are not willing to share

Appendices

- Appendix 1A Audit of Community and Voluntary Infrastructure in County Donegal
- Appendix 1B Audit of Facilities in County Donegal
- Appendix 2A Iniúchadh ar Infreastruchtúr Pobail & Deonach i gContae Dhún na nGall
- Appendix 2B Iniúchadh ar Áiseanna i gContae Dhún na nGall
- Appendix 3 Common Registration Form for Community and Voluntary Groups
- Appendix 4 Map 17, Electoral Areas and Electoral Divisions of County Donegal
- Appendix 5 Map 18, Principal census towns of County Donegal