

Review of the County Development Plan 2006- 2012 Extension of consultation period and invitation to public workshops.

The period for public consultation for the review of the County Development Plan has been extended to allow for greater feedback and involvement. The closing date is now Friday 8th October 2010 at 4.30 p.m.

Workshops have been arranged throughout the County to allow the public to become involved in the review. People are being invited to come along to a workshop evening in their area where there will be an opportunity to see what the review entails, what it can mean to you and how you can have an effect on the outcome. There will be opportunities to simply listen and/or to have your say.

Check out the details below to see which venue is closest to you. It is your County and your Plan, so come along to one of the workshops and have your say!
