

Oral History for Beginners

Workshop with Arlene Crampsie, Oral History Network of Ireland

at Donegal County Museum (High Road, Letterkenny, Co Donegal)

For Heritage Week 2024

Saturday 17 August, 10:30am - 12:30pm

Are you interested in recording Oral History and have no idea how to begin? If so, join us on Saturday 17th August at this Heritage Week event in Donegal County Museum, Letterkenny, for a training workshop with Arlene Crampsie, Oral History Network of Ireland (OHNI). Dr Crampsie a director and committee member of the Oral History Network of Ireland.

This free workshop is specifically designed for beginners who are interested in learning more about oral history and how to use it for historical research through recorded interviews. This foundation workshop will guide you through some of the key issues to consider when using oral history and offers an introduction to project planning, the ethical considerations, interview techniques and potential outputs.

This is a joint Donegal County Archives, Donegal County Museum and Oral History Network of Ireland event for Heritage Week 2024.

Places are limited and pre-booking is required – Phone 074 9124613; or email museum@donegalcoco.ie
