REPORT OF THE SURVEYOR FOR THE NORTH DISTRICT.

SUMMER ASSIZES, 1880.

MY LORD AND GENTLEMEN,

The County Cess will be very low for this current half-year, and it has, as you are aware, been much reduced the previous half-year.

I have nothing of importance to bring before you as to new works, for there are very few to be considered at these Assizes.

I annex the statement of Accounts of Fishery Piers.

There are some Relief Works in progress in the Barony of Kilmacrenan; they are far advanced towards completion, but there are legal difficulties I am advised in taking such of them as new roads under your care, and to which I will call your attention.

A circular as regards Fishery Piers has been sent by the Government reminding the Grand Jury as to their responsibility as regards their maintenance. I will report to you upon this matter when you have time to take it up. The case of Ballyness Pier is a very serious one, and I intend to bring it under your special notice.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

WILLIAM HARTE, County Surveyor.

REPORT OF THE SURVEYOR FOR THE SOUTH DISTRICT.

SUMMER ASSIZES, 1880.

MY LORD AND GENTLEMEN,

I have no special remark to make with regard to the contracts for maintenance of roads; these have been fairly carried out, although I have as usual to complain of cases of neglect between the period of certifying at Presentment Sessions and the Assizes.

The new works coming before you are, as to number, somewhat below the average, and are generally of an unimportant character.

The relief works in the Baronies of Banagh and Boylagh are progressing satisfactorily, and, while the object of affording temporary relief to the distressed classes will be reasonably attained, I feel satisfied that a fair amount of finished work of a useful character will have been, in proportion to the expenditure, eventually accomplished.

I annex a statement of the Fishery Piers' Account.

I have the honour to be,

Your obedient servant,

F. GAHAN, C.E.

ORDERED—That, for the future, the County Surveyors shall confine their reports strictly to the directions given by the Act of Parliament with regard to their duties, and shall not refer to subjects contrary to this order, on pain of the displeasure of the Grand Jury.
