it formerly was that one of applicants

Mr S. W. Fadden Solicitor attended before the Council as requested and explained the terms of his appointment and referred to the letter of the L. J. of 9th January 1908 which he as Solicitor accepted, and could not understand why any change should now be asked by the Local Government Board seeing that all the work was pretty nearly now completed. The Council approve of this explanation.

Mr Denis Ward who was declared the Contractor for nine Labourers Cottages on the 7th list, appeared before the Council and stated that he found he would not be able to complete so many in the six months allowed and asked the Council to relieve him of 4 of them namely nos. 1, 2, 38, & 201. These he said were in districts in which there should not be any trouble in getting Contractors and if any of them lay over, he would undertake to build them at his tender when he had the others completed.

The Council decided to relieve him of the four Cottages he referred to, and directed the Clerk to inform Mr W. Fadden to this effect so that they should not be included in the wards Bond and that they be re-advertised with the others not yet taken.
