

P/183/10/1 (2)

20911b

Donegal County Council Archives

20911R

P/183/10/2

Donegal County Council Archives

P/183/10/3(a)

Donegal County Council Archives

89278A

P/183/110 13(2)

Donegal County Council Archives

9278

P/183/10/3(3)

Donegal County Council Archives

209116
85

P/183/10/4

POST CARD

Address below

Donegal County Council Archives

P/183/10/5

209116

95

Donegal County Council Archives

P/183/10/6

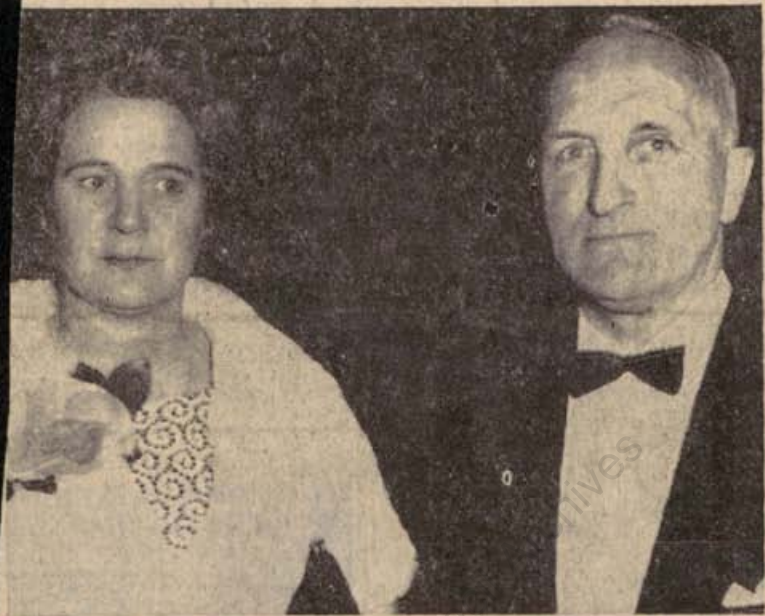

20911B
95

Donegal County Council Archives

HISTORICAL SOCIETY DINNER

9/11/53/110
760

sums asked by Inspector Giffin, and ordered the accused to be remanded in custody until such sums had been paid, or until the date of the trial.

Mr. Rupert O'Cochlainn, President of the Donegal Historical Society and Mrs. O'Cochlainn, at the Society's annual dinner in Jackson's Hotel, Ballybofey.

Mrs. R. A. J. Berardo, wife of Mr. Roland A. J. Berardo, second secretary, American Embassy, Dublin, whose mother was a native of the Mountcharles area, and her son, Steven, at the Donegal Historical Society's annual dinner.

GUIDED BY CAR

At a commemoration function of over 160 members of the County Donegal Historical Society in Jackson's Hotel, Ballybofey, on Thursday, four of the old I.R.A. men in the county to celebrate the Golden Jubilee of the Easter Rising, 1916, were: Major General Joseph A. Sweeney (Burtonport and Dublin); Mr. Joseph P. McGinley, M.Ch. (Letterkenny); Mr. Dominic O'Kelly, B.A., B.Ph. (Downings), and ex-Supt. Joseph Murray, G.S., Bundoran.

Photo

Rosemary Tower

10/11/1917

P/183/10/9

Donegal County Council Archives