Clare O'Presco

Handweaving

In Clare's studio you can see Donegal tweed being hand-woven on a traditional Donegal loom. After graduating with a BA (Hon) degree in woven textile design Clare moved to Donegal to fulfil her desire to create a modern version of Donegal tweed using traditional methods and local yarns. Colour plays a very important role in the modern tweed Clare produces. The tweed is made into various products such as home furnishings, bags, scarfs and other gift items. Clare also 'paints with wool' on a loom using hand carded fleece. Blending the wool fibres by hand creates the wide ranges of colours used in Clare's original tapestries. Commissions are undertaken for that special gift or interior design requirement.

McGonigle Glass

After graduating in glass design from the National College of Art and Design in Dublin, sisters Elaine and Lyndsey decided to set up their own business and for the past seven years, McGonigle Glass has been successfully trading from its premises in the Donegal Craft Village. Working from the studio, they specialise in eye-catching glass jewellery, large glass sculptures and functional platters! Using their experience and expertise, they combine a variety of sand-casting, fusing, slumping, engraving and bead-making techniques to produce their designs!

Living in one of Ireland's most scenic counties, it's no wonder that inspiration for the work comes from the rugged West coast of Donegal, the grass, the sand, the sea and the rocks, even the weather has played its part in some of their designs!

Sandrine Salvador

'The Enchanted Earth' - Ceramics

Sandrine's creations are an expression of two facets of her personality: passion for clay and for the world of the Celts. The symbols she engraves on her pottery come from Celtic art as well as the imagery of the Arthurian legend. All pieces are entirely handmade from the concept to completion. Every piece is conceived to be made in limited quantity, with different forms and colours which guarantee its authenticity and rarity.
