Donegal County Council

Temporary Beach Lifeguard
Summer Bathing Season
June to September, 2022 & 2023

Information for Candidates

February, 2022

1. The Position

The Council is seeking applications from suitably qualified candidates with relevant experience for the position of Beach Lifeguard for the Summer Bathing Season 2022 & 2023 (June to September, 2022 & 2023).

Please note that candidates from the 2021 Summer Bathing Season are required to re-apply to this competition in order to be considered for the 2022 / 2023 Summer Bathing Seasons.

Note: Positions on Bundoran & Rosstown beaches begin full time from the 1st of June; posts on all other beaches begin at weekends only from June 4th and subsequently operate on a full time basis from July 1st.

It is proposed to form a panel of qualified candidates from which any temporary vacancies which arise will be filled during the lifetime of the panel.

The successful candidate shall report to the Beach Lifeguard Supervisor and Coastal Officer or other appropriate person in the Water and Environment Directorate as determined by the Council from time to time.

2. Duties

The duties of the post will include but are not limited to the following non-exhaustive list:

- Beach lifeguards will be responsible for the performance of their duties and will work under the immediate supervision of the Beach Lifeguard Supervisor who, in turn, reports to the Coastal Officer.
- Beach Lifeguards shall read, be familiar with and adhere to the Safety Statement for Beach Lifeguards; participate in induction training and cooperate with other safety training provided by the Council as required. Any issues of health and safety concern or general details regarding their duties shall be referred to the Beach Lifeguard Supervisor or the Coastal Officer. The procedure for reporting issues of concern is set out in the Safety Statement.

(a) The Beach

- All equipment must be checked daily (each morning) to see that it is in working order and ready for use. Any defects noted should be reported immediately. To inspect all lifesaving and first aid equipment on arrival for duty to ensure that adequate stocks are available and in good working order.
- Indication flags should be placed in prominent positions. The following flag system is to be used:
 - Red flag signifies that bathing is considered temporarily unsafe.
 - Red over yellow flag signifies that bathing between any two such flags is under supervision of Beach Lifeguard.
 - No flag is flown if there is no Beach Lifeguard on duty.
 - To ensure that from the start of the duty period that the appropriate flags are flown and are changed or re-located as necessary during the day.
 - To ensure at the conclusion of the duty period each evening that all flags are removed and that all equipment is checked and securely stored in the appropriate place.
- To ensure that except for emergency assistance or official business, no one other than lifeguard personnel is permitted in the lifeguard station.

(b) Bathers

- Beach Lifeguards must always be courteous to bathers and give them the necessary information regarding state of tides, currents and parts of strand which are not safe for bathing.
- To provide emergency rescue service in the case of accidents.
- Going immediately to the assistance of persons in difficulties in the water and rendering to such persons the necessary attention; To render first aid when possible.

- Where bathers are about to enter water at a point which is considered dangerous owing to currents, shifting sands etc., they should immediately warn them and give them reasons. Practice a philosophy of prevention over reaction in carrying out the service.
- If the bathers are acting in an indecent manner, the Beach guard should bring this fact to the notice of the Garda Síochána at the earliest opportunity.

(c) Other Duties for Consideration

- Except when the beach is empty, the Beach Lifeguard should be on beach patrol or on look-out outside the hut. The Beach Lifeguard should never be inside the hut except when relieved for meals etc. or when they are certain there is nobody on the beach. They should not allow their concentration to be diverted in conversations with the public, mobile phone use, or in reading. The primary duty of the Beach Lifeguard is to prevent accident situations from developing. The rescue tube should be strategically placed so that it may be used at a moment's notice. Special vigilance is required where there are rocks or an outflow of a river, as there are likely to be undertows or currents.
- Where Beach Lifeguards have to leave to partake of meals, arrangements should be made that one Beach Lifeguard will be on duty during the other's absence for such purpose and to patrol his/her area in addition to his/her own.
- Where two or more Beach Lifeguards are on duty on a particular beach –
 - One Beach Lifeguard shall remain at a vantage point from which a full view of the beach can be had and remain on a constant lookout,
 - The other Beach Lifeguard shall maintain a patrol of the beach and in such a manner that any given point along the beach is visited at least once in every 15 minutes.
 - Brief reports should be exchanged when they meet but lifeguards should never be seen to congregate together or with other groups.
- To provide constant observation and supervision of activities at public bathing places in order to prevent drowning accidents.

- To inspect the patrol area and, where possible, to remove any dangerous or offensive items. If the lifeguard cannot deal with the matter he/she should immediately report to his/her supervisor.
- To ensure that the lifeguard station is kept clean and tidy and in a state of readiness for emergencies.
- The Beach Lifeguards shall monitor the condition of the toilets and notify the Lifeguard Supervisor in the case of serious uncleanliness or damage.
- Conduct daily inspections of the ringbuoys in their patrol zone – and within reach beyond - and record same on their App provided. Lifeguards shall arrange weekly inspections (as a minimum) of all other ringbuoys on their beaches on the App with support from the Lifeguard Supervisor.
- Beach Lifeguards may be required to assist in conducting aquatic events and water safety programs.
- Beach Lifeguards shall carry out all appropriate duties as laid down in the Irish Water Safety Lifeguard Handbook.
- Beach Lifeguards should enter on the log book, times of commencing and ceasing duty and log same with the Coastguard each day.
- Beach Lifeguards should make a note of any accident/incident such as rescues, etc, and record same on the App supplied. The general Log Book of daily events should also be maintained and available at all times for inspection by any duly authorised member of the County Council's staff.
- The daily Log Book should also record:
 - The names and attendance times of all guards on duty.
 - The general weather and tidal conditions.
 - What flags were flown and when they were changed during the day.
 - Duties undertaken such as clearing of beach access, reporting of bin/toilet service, flags missing, First Aid administered, etc.
 - Any information which may assist the Authorities in improving the service or support any future enquiry of daily events which could arise.

- The Log Book must be completed and maintained in a professional manner as it may be used as evidence at a later enquiry.

(d) Senior Beach Lifeguard Role

- The Senior Beach Lifeguard at each location will, in addition to carrying out all of the duties, etc., of Beach Lifeguard (including taking full part in any roster arrangements), be responsible for ensuring that the Beach Lifeguards at his/ her location comply fully with the terms of the duties, responsibilities and general regulations of the post.
- Assist with the Water Quality Section, Environment Department, at various times over the summer season notifying the public of changes in bathing water quality, as necessary.
- To complete all appropriate rescue and first aid forms.
- To ensure beach access is clear of sand/litter/obstacles at all times.
- To ensure that all beach promotional services are fit for purpose (information boards, safety signage, Blue Flags, public seating, etc) and notify the Lifeguard Supervisor if issues arise.
- Put out waste/recycling receptacles (as necessary) each day, monitor/empty bins (as necessary) and alert Lifeguard Supervisor (as necessary) if waste services are under strain. Beach Lifeguards shall also ensure litter is collected from their beach, its car park(s) and general environs.
