PUBLIC INFORMATION EVENT

N15 Ballybofey & Stranorlar - Improved Pedestrian Crossing Scheme

Donegal County Council is seeking to improve existing pedestrian crossings at strategic locations on the N15 to provide a safe passage for pedestrians.

N15 Main St, Stranorlar - Scheme Location Showing Proposed Works.

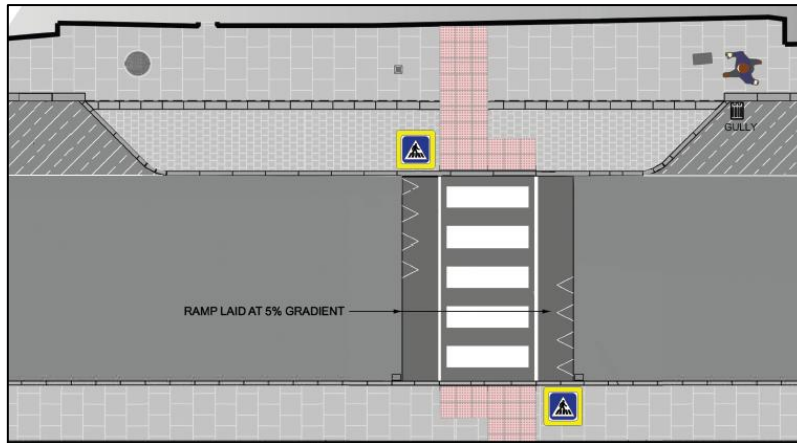

N15 Main St, Ballybofey - Scheme Location Showing Proposed Works.

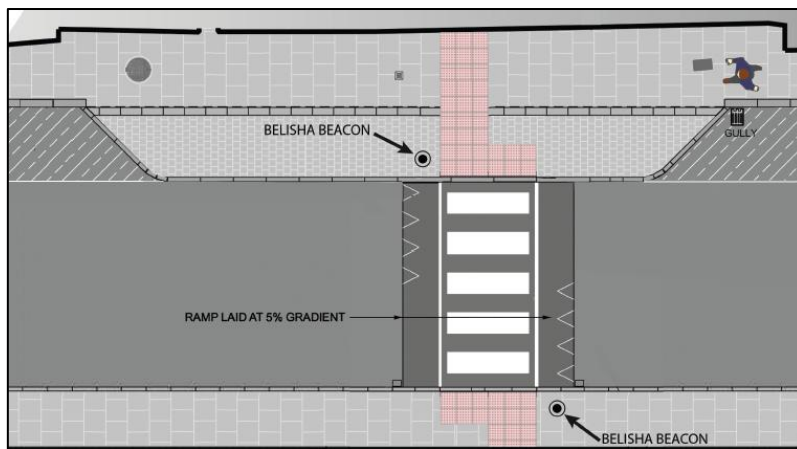

The proposed scheme aims to improve pedestrian safety within the urban realm and to create greater awareness of the crossings for approaching motorists.

Key Upgrades include:

- Upgrading of 5nr. existing pedestrian crossings located along the N15. The revised pedestrian crossings to be constructed similar to the layouts shown below.
- Carrying out necessary modifications to sections of existing footpaths at 3nr. other locations along the N15.
- And to complete all other ancillary and tie in works associated with the proposed scheme.

Typical Layout A. Proposed Pedestrian Crossing at Ped S1, Ped S2, Ped B1 & Ped B2.

Typical Layout B. Proposed Pedestrian Crossing at Ped B4.

The scheme is currently at Phase 4 (Planning) and residents and businesses of the areas, members of the public and interested parties are now invited to participate in the statutory public consultation for the scheme.

The aim of the information event is to inform the public of the preliminary designs and to invite feedback on the proposals.

A Public Display of the design proposals will take place in:

Stranorlar Public Services Centre, The Base Enterprise Centre, Stranorlar, Co Donegal, F93 AOE4 on Wednesday, 14th May 2025, Between 2pm and 7pm
