Librarian

Information for Candidates

January, 2026

1. The Position

The Council is seeking applications from suitably qualified candidates with relevant experience for the position of Librarian.

It is proposed to form a panel of qualified candidates from which vacancies both permanent and temporary will be filled during the lifetime of the panel.

The Librarian is a middle management post within the management structure of Donegal County Library, delivering service areas at Headquarters, or in a library/number of libraries within a Municipal District or Districts. This post requires professional librarianship, leadership and management skills.

The Librarian is supported by the posts of Senior Library Assistant, and Library Assistant/Branch Librarian.

Librarians report to an Executive Librarian. The Librarian will deputise for the Executive Librarian, and will represent the Executive Librarian and the organisation as required.

The main role of the Librarian is the delivery of public library and/or related support services in line with the priorities identified in The Library is the Place: National Public Library Strategy 2023-2027 and Cultúr le Chéile: Strategic Plan for Culture Division 2022-2026.

All roles are reviewed periodically to reflect changing circumstances. Each Librarian role will evolve over time and it should be understood that as the public library environment changes, so too will the requirements of the post.

Donegal County Library

The Library Service is based in the Planning, Communities and Culture Directorate of Donegal County Council.

The Culture Division comprises the Library Service, the Arts Service, the Regional Cultural Centre, the Museum Service, the Archives Service, the Biodiversity Office and the County Donegal Heritage Office.

The library network includes 13 libraries and 8 Taobh Tíre community partnership service points, as well as a Cross-Border Mobile Library Service run in partnership with Libraries NI. The Central Library in Letterkenny is the largest and the busiest library and includes the main Local Studies research collection and Europe Direct, in addition to providing public library services. Online library services and resources are developing rapidly, as are the options for self-service including the My Open Library Service.

As the Library Service is part of the Culture Division it is expected that Librarians will work with colleagues from across the Division on programmes and projects, from time to time.

The Librarian will be responsible for particular aspects of the service as determined by the particular vacancy and the priority work areas. The Librarian will undertake any other duties as required by the County Librarian/Culture Division Manager.

2. Roles Duties & Responsibilities

The duties of the Librarian will be consistent with the provision of a modern public library service that is responsive to the changing requirements of customers of all ages and abilities and will include but are not limited to:

- working with library management and partners to deliver local and national plans and policies,
- day to day management of libraries in one or more Municipal Districts
- staff management, including PMDS and training programmes,
- management and delivery of new work practices and initiatives,
- ensuring excellent customer service,
- ensuring consistent opening hours, managing staff rotas and provision of cover,
- information provision and user education,
- implementation of national programmes such as Right to Read, Healthy Ireland at Your Library and Skills for Life,
- online and digital services provision,
- provision of ICT support, including the Library Management System and RFID equipment,
- programme and project development and delivery, in house and online,
- promotion of library services via press releases, social media etc
- collection management and development, including stock selection,
- cataloguing and classification of library stock,
- library administration duties, data collection and analysis,
- health and safety compliance,
- building management,
- attendance at and management of meetings,
- report writing,
- budget management and developing funding applications,
- representing the Library Service/Culture Division on internal and external working groups,
- supporting senior staff in service planning and delivery, and
- Any other duties as required by the County Librarian/Culture Division Manager.

Note: A satisfactory competence in the Irish language is deemed necessary in relation to any vacancy within the Glenties Municipal District. An assessment of this competence may be carried out as part of the recruitment and selection process as appropriate.

Official Languages (Amendment) Acts, 2021

So that the Local Authority may meet its statutory obligations, a satisfactory competence in the Irish Language is deemed essential for appointment/assignment/re-assignment to Gaeltacht-based offices and offices serving Gaeltacht areas. Competence to be of a level where one can operate through the medium of Irish and provide services to the public in Irish, as per the provisions of the Official Languages (Amendment) Acts, 2021. An assessment of this competence may form an integral part of the recruitment and selection process.
